

all adult attendees eleven years and older must wear a mask attending Shul. All adults must be double jabbed before attending and are recommended to take a lateral flow test within twenty four hours of coming to Shul'.